

Table 1: Structure of data categorisation on forested and conservation areas in Malaysia at the federal level

Peninsular Malaysia	Sabah	Sarawak
State land forests
Forests that have not been gazetted, largely under the authority of land authorities
Permanent reserved forest: Main forestry legislation
Permanent Reserved Forest	Forest Reserve	Permanent Forest Estate
Production forest	Production forest	Production forest
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Timber Production Forest under Sustained Yield 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commercial Forest • Domestic Forest • Amenity Forest • Mangrove Forest 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Forest Reserve • Protected Forest • Communal Forest Reserve
Protection forest*	Protection forest*
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Soil Protection Forest • Soil Reclamation Forest • Flood Control Forest • Water Catchment Forest • Forest Sanctuary for Wildlife • Virgin Jungle Reserved Forest • Amenity Forest • Education Forest • Research Forest • Forest for Federal Purposes • State Park 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Protection Forest • Virgin Jungle Reserve • Wildlife Reserve
Totally protected or conservation forests and areas: Conservation legislation
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • National Park • Wildlife Reserves • Wildlife Sanctuaries • State Park 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sabah Park • Wildlife Sanctuary • Conservation Area 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • National Park • Nature Reserve • Wildlife Sanctuary
Alienated forests
Forests located on land with a private documentary title		